April Newsletter

Welcome to April and the third and final newsletter of the first term. It has been a very successful and busy term in the life of the school. Students have made the most of their opportunities and they have made excellent progress with their learning. We have also seen excellent progress made with the different projects underway around the school. Thank you to all who have contributed to the success of the school this term!

Dad's and Lad's Reading night:

On Tuesday 21 March we had over forty dads and fifty lads come together for an enjoyable evening to talk about boys and their reading. We had a bite to eat and discussed the important role Dads play in their sons reading. We are wanting to really promote boys and reading and some of the tips we shared were:

- Find a time and space that works- 15 minutes a day. It is worth it!
- Choose something that interests the lad e.g. magazine, newspaper article, book they enjoy or even something online.
- Make it fun- take turns at reading.
- Ask questions about what you are reading.
  - Give plenty of time for your child to fix a mistake.

Donated BBQ, children's BBQ Table, and shade sail posts: Thanks to Adrian and Mindy Tayler for donating a BBQ for the school to use and thank you to Steve and Lou Parsons for donating a children's BBQ table to the school. Also thanks to Craig and Rachel Ross for providing the posts for the shade sail over the sandpit. Great to be part of such a supportive community!

Coastal Cluster Swimming Sports:

A large group of our Year 5/6 students went to the Clive Pool to compete in the Coastal Cluster Swimming Sports. The students all tried hard, swam well resulting in our school finishing in second place overall. Special congratulations to Ormlie who was the champion girl.

ESKDALE SCHOOL YEAR 8

GRADUATE PROFILE

"TODAY'S LEARNERS, TOMORROW'S LEADERS"

Year 8 Graduate Profile: As a teaching team, we have been working on developing a graduate profile for our learners. The profile is designed to highlight a set of dispositions (Behaviours/attitudes) we would like all of our students to have and display when they leave our school at the end of Year 8. We are sure that if a student has all of these dispositions or is working on all of these we will be able send them on to High School ready to take on all the challenges that will be thrown their way. We want to limit the number of dispositions to between 10 and 15 because we want the students to know what they are aiming for and to be able to talk about them. Please have a read and let us know if you think we have missed something.

Digital Online Safety: On Monday 13 March we had Detective Sergeant Mark Moorhouse come along and share with parents about online safety and in particular some of the challenges around social media. He also shared the need for people to realise why the different apps and sites had age restrictions. (See picture for age restrictions on social media sites) For those of you not able to make it on the night or those of you who would like to revisit the information shared I have uploaded his presentation to the school website. You can simply click on the link below or you can go to the school website and under the school highlights tab you can find the presentation. <http://www.eskdale.school.nz/144/pages/60-keeping-children-safe-online>

Hawkes Bay Cricket: This term we have had Hawkes Bay Cricket in to work with all students from Year 3- Year 8. Here is what two of our students had to say about their experience.

On Monday 13 of March it was raining, it was terrible. I was thinking this day couldn't get any worse, it didn't, it got better...Because we got to do cricket with Indi and Toddy. We are doing it because Sport Hawkes Bay are trying to get more people playing more sport. We learnt how to bowl and hit a cricket ball. They taught us how not to underarm bowl. You step forward and do an overarm bowl and your arm brushes your ear like a windmill. For a hit, you step forward and hit the ball and try to hit the wicket. I can't wait for the next four sessions.

By Makyla

This term, on the 13th of March, all of the year 3 to 8 students had our first cricket session with ex T20 Sri Lankan player and Central Districts player Indika, and Under 19 New Zealand player and New Zealand indoor player, Todd Watson. They are part of Skills in Sports. They taught us how to bowl, bat, throw and catch.

Some of the basic tips for bowling were

- Keep your dominant hand straight
- With your non-dominant hand point to the target
- Put your fingers on either side of the seam, which is the thread holding the ball together

Some of the basic tips for batting were

- Hit the ball along the ground (so you can't get caught)
- With your hands make a tripod grip on the bat
- Watch the bowl the whole time

Some of the basic tips for catching were

- Watch the ball into your hands
- Catch the ball above your eyes
- Make a cup with your hands to catch the bowl

They were really great coaches, your children will have learnt a lot from Indi and Todd. All of the year 3 to 8 students received five 1-hour sessions on how to improve in cricket. The skills in sports programme will be doing a lot more sports around our school, so I'm sure your children will be enjoying sport more with the input from some of these amazing coaches.

I really enjoyed learning the skills that they taught us and I'm sure everyone else did as well.

By William Knowles.

Fun Triathlon: The Fun Triathlon was exactly as the title suggests it was a lot of fun! Daniel Moule shares his thoughts below:

At Eskdale School, Friday the 17th of March, Running, Cycling and Slipping in dishwashing liquid was awesome fun but pretty tiring! A big thanks to the PTA for cooking and selling food and drinks.

Over 200 people came and at least 80 kids competed. Many adults competed and some cheated as they started 2 laps after us and cut corners.

I felt like I was in a dream after my race because I was insanely dizzy. Every child could go down the slide again if they wanted but not all kids did. It was an exhausting tiring but overall a tremendous evening. Within minutes, many kids and adults were completely gone and the school was deserted. Well done to those who competed or even just came. Also thanks to the helpers, marshals and adults who helped set it up and guide younger students.

Sandpit: The school welcomed a new sandpit last week. This new addition to the school has already proven to be a real hit with the students. Turning this dead space into a three-tiered sand pit will give our children years of fun! Thanks to the PTA who have done an awesome job with this project. I know the children appreciate it. A special thanks to all of those who helped out at the working bee.

Some of the students from Kea class wrote this about the new sand pit:

Kea class skipped down to the sandpit. We got to be the first class to play in the sandpit. Poppet, Bean and me played in the corner because we played with the funky toys. We all had a turn with each coloured toy. By Sasha

I played in the new sandpit with the golden tap. I made a waterfall and a pond with eels and a fish. By Kourosh

I got buried in the rough sand. The sand put pressure on me and it felt like sandpaper. I got all goeey with sand. Logan was covered in sand when he got up too. My hair was filled with icky, sticky, sand. All of the sand was stuck on my legs and all up my arms! I felt happy about the new sand pit. By Amelia

The sand felt smooth and rough. It was new! We played bakeries. We baked pie and chocolate ice cream. The sand got between my toes and it felt itchy. I loved playing bakeries. By Evie

We went to the sand pit. We built houses and made food. Then I got buried. The sand felt goeey and squishy. It was freezing like an iceberg, under the sand. When I got up sand was stuck to me. The sand was so hard to get off. It was fun. When it was time to go I had to dust myself off! I thought the new sandpit was cool. By Bean

I saw an amazing massive truck in the sand pit. It was making a sand mountain brrmm, brrrmmm, brrrmmm! The truck was very loud. It sounded like monsters feet! I saw the golden sparkly water tap, the water came out fast. Me and Amelia built a giant farm. The sand was rough and scrunchie. I liked playing in the sand pit. By Ruka

School Accounts: March invoices will be sent home later today. A number of winter sports codes have now charged their fees and these are included in your statement. Also a reminder that the discounted rate for School Fees/Donations is due to finish at the end of the term.

Office Art Display: Jake Maunder a Napier joiner recently donated a quality wooden picture frame to the school. I have been able to put this up in my office and will use it to display some of the excellent art work from around the school. Ms Jurgens is selecting the artwork from the classes when she works with them and will be updating the artwork once a month. I look forward to seeing more of the excellent art from our talented students.

With only one week of the term remaining I would like to thank you all for your support this term and trust that you will get to enjoy some time with your family over the holiday break.

Tristan

In Korimako, we are learning about our classroom bird/ mascot.

We are also learning to add detail to our ideas when writing.

Here is one piece of writing you can see when you visit our class.

The New Zealand Korimako is a native New Zealand bird. It has a lot of detail; like its colour. Its colour is mustard and olive green colour with a blue and black head and wings. He has a brush like tongue and a curved beak. We all know that the Korimako has some predators like stoats, cats and rats. They are predators because they eat their eggs and babies. They live in a territory with trees and bush and they live in the same tree. They work a lot on their nest; it is made out of sticks and hay.

Matau the Seagull

Dad found this seagull down the beach that couldn't fly and when we got home, we decided to go down the beach and feed it. When we got down there Tegan found a hook in its wing so we decided to take it home and cut the string. Then that lead to a new problem he had swallowed the other end of the end of string which had a hook at the end. So we tried to get him to the SPCA to get it out it of his stomach. But unfortunately, he started going crazy in the car and swallowed the end of the string so Dad let him go.

*P.S. It was the endangered black billed gull.

EDUCATION for SUSTAINABILITY (EFS)

Some amazing learning experiences have been taking place this month on the EFS scene...

- Kea class have been looking at the Monarch butterfly life cycle and doing some study around Swan Plants, in particular the problem of predator control. The children have come up with some interesting solutions and have now potted up a plant each.

- Hihi and Toroa pupils enjoyed working with Marie Taylor of Plant HB last week. Marie came to the school and shared her expertise on seed collecting, with groups of pupils collecting seeds from our own Native trees. We are very fortunate to have local experts keen to share their knowledge with the children. Think like a bird!

- We harvested 85 Golden Queen peaches from the Orchard this season! A number of our pupils enjoyed tasting these.

Enviro Squad

The squad hosted a group of 21 students and 7 adults visiting from Sherwood School last week. It was a very successful day and fantastic to see the pride and ownership that our pupils have around our sustainable practices and environment in general. Many thanks to you all!

This group have been working very hard on waste awareness this year and know that their efforts are starting to make a difference. Thank you to the many families who are now have sustainable lunches, using lunchboxes with compartments, reusable food containers and washable snaplock bags. It was interesting to hear our waste team sharing their journey with Sherwood students.

Snaplock good.
Glad wrap bad.

You can put your snap lock bags in the dishwasher and then you can use them again :)
